TREND INTRODUCTION

WELCOME TO THE ERA OF MONOCHROMATIC ELEGANCE

This season's trend story goes far beyond a fresh palette. Clients are embracing elevated naturals and tone-on-tone colour that feels effortlessly luxurious yet deeply personal. A movement towards "Refined beauty".

As the appetite for intentional dimension grows, curated colour combinations emerge as the new language of modern sophistication.

Welcome to the world of Monochromatic Colour. Tone-on-tone artistry, subtle transitions, and beautifully elevated simplicity.

Wella Professionals places the pro at the heart of this monochromatic movement with smart, salon-ready techniques, designed to deliver refined, dimensional colour that fits seamlessly into real life. Minimal effort, maximum impact.

Yours sincerely,
Wella Professionals

AW26 TRENDS

MONOCHROMATIC

FASHION & LIFESTYLE

Rooted in the broader movement towards minimalism, the monochromatic trend expresses elegance and sophistication. The monochromatic look is a style built from variations of a single colour family for an effortless expensive result.

Monochrome is fashion's boldest statement. One impactful colour palette. From Max Mara's creamy neutrals to Saint Laurent's muted purples, and Bottega Veneta's blacks, designers proved that simplicity now defines sophistication.

AW26 TRENDS

MONOCHROMATIC

INTERIORS & TECH

The movement of restrained minimalism gives way to bolder palettes and rich colour schemes. Interior design experts note that spaces using tone-on-tone palettes and harmonised textures are a key trend predicted for 2026 interiors.

COLOUR DRENCHING

The technique of coating a space in a single palette, creating a bold, monochromatic, and maximalist effect.

Architectural Digest

WARMTH & COMFORT

Homeowners are shifting towards interiors that look and feel lived-in. “Anything that provides comfort is trending; earth tones, wood, antiques, and rugs.”

Molly O’Neil

COLOUR CAPPING

“Painting a room in multiple tones from one colour family, typically transitioning from light to dark. Typically, lighter walls and a darker ceiling.”

Elle Decor

EARTH TONES WITH DEPTH

Palettes in 2026 lean toward warm, grounding shades. Creamy neutrals, warm taupe, soft greige, deep olive, moss green, warm cocoa, clay, sandstone and muted terracotta.

ADVANCED SMART LIVING SOLUTIONS

Smart systems enhance comfort while remaining visually discreet. AI-enabled lighting, climate control, automated curtains, occupancy sensors, voice-activated home systems and integrated security.

AW26 TRENDS

MONOCHROMATIC BEAUTY

Monochromatic makeup is where eyes, lips, and cheeks share the same hue. Loved by celebrities and amplified by TikTok creators. Praised for simplicity, cohesion, and it's flattering effect across skin.

Monochrome make up is the seriously wearable autumn beauty trend that's about to be huge.

GLAMOUR

Monochromatic make-up meets colour, courtesy of Chanel.

HARPERS BAZAAR

Celebrities are keeping the "matchy-matchy-make-up" trend alive.

TZR

“The make-up tones complement the shades used in the hair colour. This creates a harmonious and sophisticated effect which flatters the models skin colour and natural undertones.”

EYES

Blush rose tones sweep across the eyes, deepening at the inner corner and diffusing towards the brow.

A touch of shimmer adds subtle 3D lift.

SKIN

Satin skin foundation for a “barely-there” radiance.

Blush tones swept upward, diffusing above the cheekbones for a fresh, lit-from-within glow.

LIPS

Layers of deep cerise, rose, and earthy coral melt across the lips for a seamless colour-wash.

MONOCHROMATIC COLOUR THEORY

Three essential elements hold the key to describing colours which we can use on a client's hair.

HUE

The colour circle is an essential tool to understand the relationship between primary, secondary & tertiary colour hues.

Colours with the same hue belongs to the same colour family in the colour circle.

DEPTH

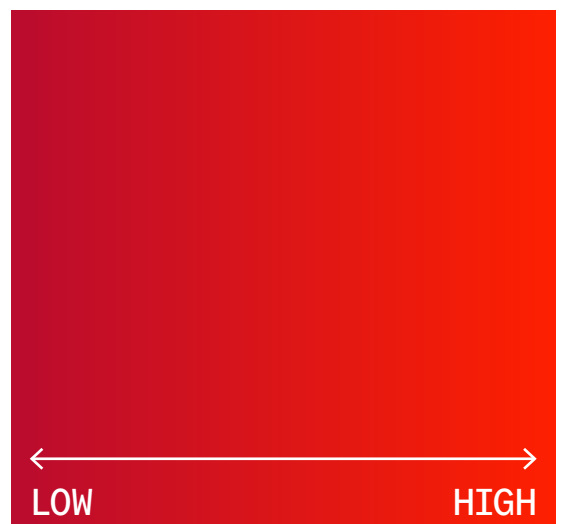

When selecting your shades, explore how light or dark you need them to be. In colour theory, this is sometimes referred to a “blackness” or “whiteness”.

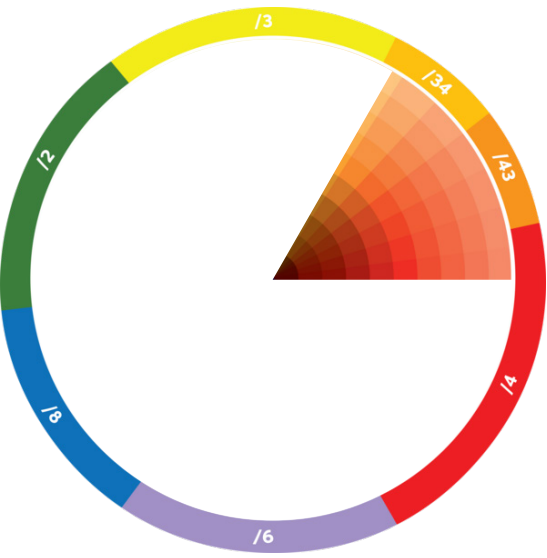

CHROMA

This is the vibrancy or dullness of a colour. High-chroma colours are bright, pure and vibrant. Low-chroma colours are muted and greyish. E.G.

- Bright red pencil:
High chromaticness.
- Muted, brownish-red:
Low chromaticness.

MONOCHROMATIC PALETTE

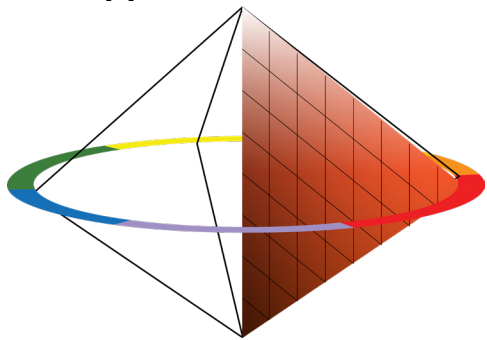

A monochromatic palette is more than just one colour. It is a collection of shades which form a personalised palette.

First decide your client's desired colour direction.
E.G. Copper.

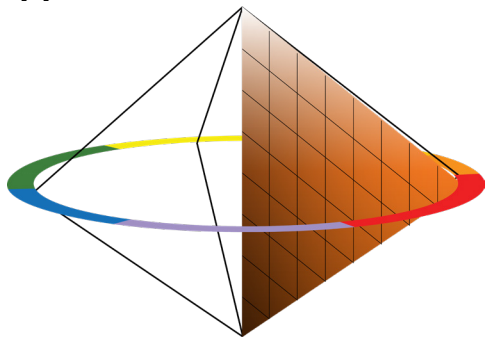

There are a full spectrum of copper possibilities, from Red-Copper to Gold-Copper.

Consider your hues, depths and chroma when selecting your shades and formulas.

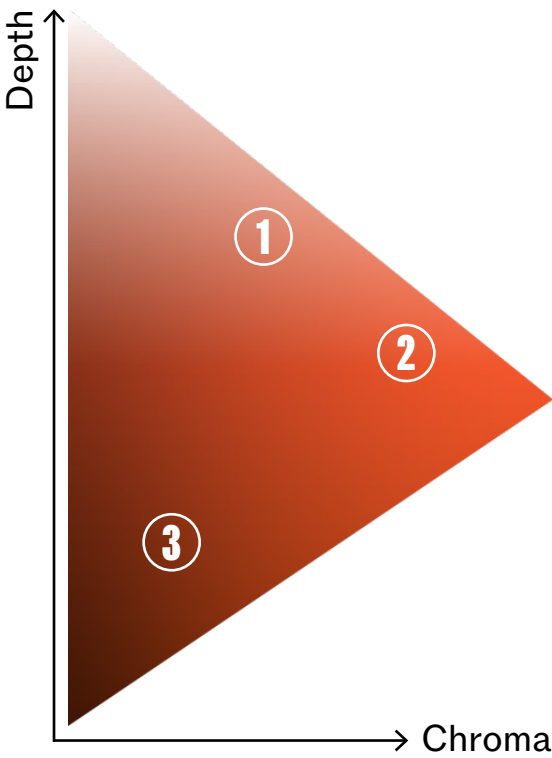

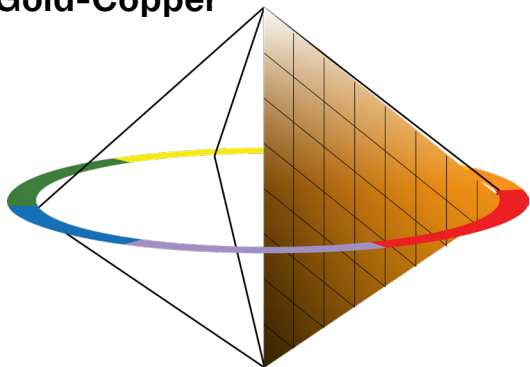

Red-Copper

MONOCHROMATIC COLOUR

BUILDING YOUR

COLOUR PALETTE

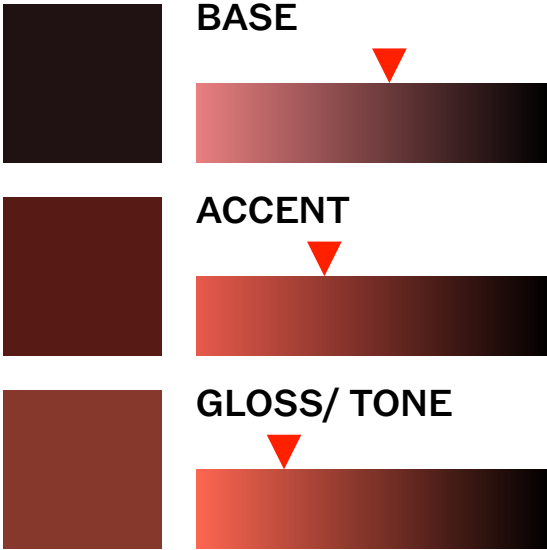

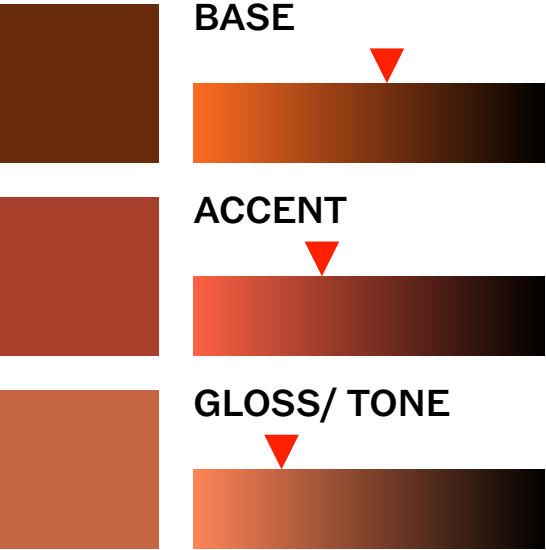

Just like a monochromatic outfit combines different shades of the same colour for a sophisticated, harmonious, and minimal look, tone-on-tone hair colour blends similar hues of varying intensities to create enhanced natural dimension.

- 60% of the hair should be coloured with your base formula
- 30% of the hair should be coloured with your accent formula
- 10% of the hair should be highlighted and then glossed/ toned

Neutrals and naturals create the foundation of the palette. Subtle accent tones introduce depth and visual interest.

By adjusting hue, depth, and chroma of your base shade, the monochromatic effect becomes elevated, resulting in a seamless, dimensional finish.

BASE FORMULA

- The deepest formula in your palette
- Strategically placed for pockets of depth

ACCENT FORMULA

- 1 – 2 depths lighter than your base formula
- If lightening with permanent colour, use a higher developer (9% or 12%)
- You can have 1 or more accent formulas

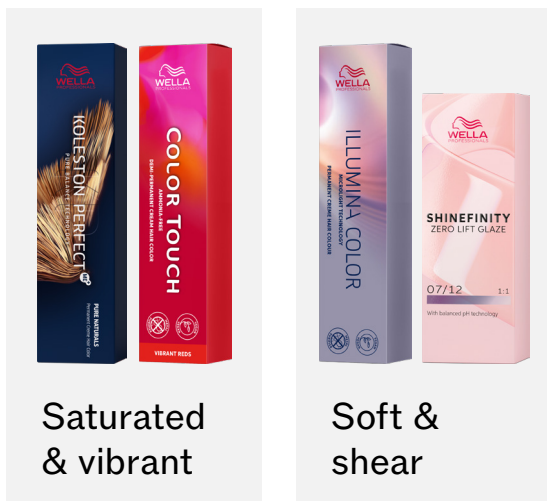

GLOSS/TONE FORMULA

- The lightest formula in your palette
- Typically demi permanent Shinefinity or Color Touch
- Used to gloss/ tone strategically placed highlights

ULTRA PERSONALISATION

Talk to your client about their desired colour finish, this will help you select your ideal colour brand.

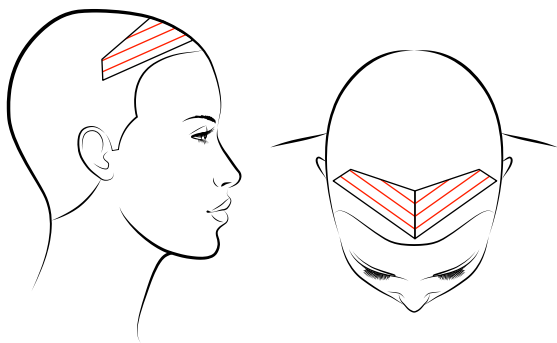

MONOCHROMATIC COLOUR HIGHLIGHT PLACEMENT

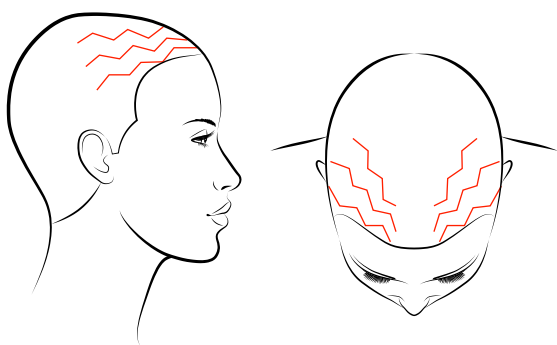

FOR CLIENTS WITH A FRINGE

Highlighting section is set back from the front hairline, allowing for the base colour to be painted on the hairline to create depth around the face. Slices are saturated on lengths and ends with Blondorplex.

FOR CLIENTS WITHOUT A FRINGE

Base formula is applied to the roots. Take large zig zag sections and saturate lengths and ends with Blondorplex.

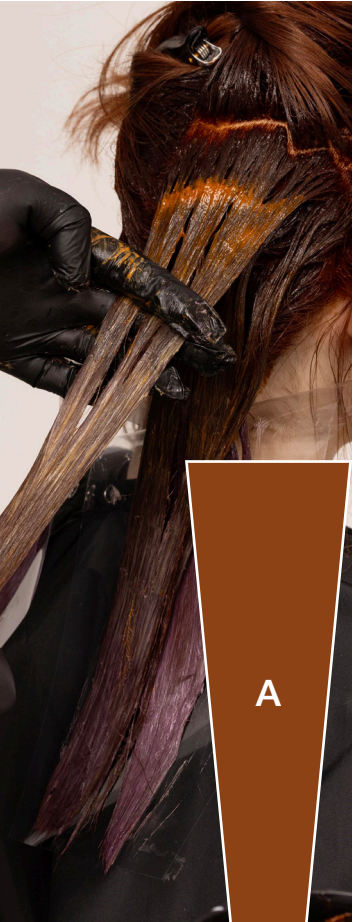

MONOCHROMATIC COLOUR COLOR PLACEMENT

MONOCHROMATIC TECHNIQUE

Map-out where you and your client want to see the depth, accents & lights. For a seamless monochromatic colour, melt and blend your color through the hair.

Being playful with your base and accent tones.

Always with a zig-zag section.
